CIB Job Offer
Position open for CEO of CIB
at its new administrative Office in Ottawa, Ontario (Canada)

Request from the CIB President

In my role as President of the Board for the International Council for Research and Innovation in Building and Construction (CIB), I am reaching out to you to network about a remarkable opportunity that CIB currently has open for a Chief Executive Officer (CEO).

This is a position for someone with leadership and management experience preferably with an innovation and research background.

I am optimistic that you may be interested or that you will share this opportunity with potentially suitable candidates in your network.

CIB is looking for someone who has a passion for connecting experts, who is eager to contribute to the strength of our network of experts on a global level in the construction industry and is self-motivated by the desire to reach and exceed challenging goals.

It is an exciting opportunity that offers the possibility to develop one's leadership and managerial competencies, thus taking one's career to the next level!
